

Tax Preparation Checklist for 2025 Returns

This is not an all-encompassing list. Some items may apply to you while others do not. Please disregard any items that do not apply to you. PLEASE SEND ME YOUR ORIGINAL OR COPIES OF TAX DOCUMENTS & W-2's but make copies of all the information you sent me for your records. If you need to apply for college financial aid, please write "FAFSA" on the outside of your envelope. When mailing your information, please track your package using US Priority Mail, UPS, FedEx, or other carriers. You can also securely upload your documents to me via Dropbox (If needed, please contact me for details). Due to the sensitivity of the records, emailing these documents is not secure and therefore not recommended.

When I complete your return, I will send you a draft and e-file form(s) for you to sign (if applicable). It is up to you to review the draft as ultimately the tax return is your responsibility.

- New Clients Only: Last two (2) years tax returns and date of birth.
- Clear copy of your Driver's License: Your driver's license (including issue and expiration date) for both spouses. A new copy is needed when you renew your license (front and back for New York licenses).
- Names, birthdates, social security numbers of all household members, including college students who are your child. (Declare the relationships.)
- For Newborns and New Dependents Only: Dates of Birth and a copy of the Social Security Card. (New clients need to provide Dates of Birth and Social Security Numbers for all dependents).
- W2s & 1099s – Wages, Overtime, Tips, Pensions & IRA Income, Social Security Benefits, Unemployment Compensation, Interest, Dividends, Stock Sales, etc. (I need all pages for 1099-DIV's & 1099-B from investments.)
- Latest State Tax Refund(s). You must go online to Google "NJ 1099 G Tax Refund" or "NY 1099 G Tax Refund" and follow the links to print out your form. [If you did not receive a refund in 2025 or did not do the long-form Schedule A – Itemized Deductions, this is not necessary.]
- Unemployment Compensation: You must go online to get your unemployment 1099-G.
- Medical Expenses (do not send receipts, just the total spent on each category):
 - 1) Health insurance & COBRA premiums paid out of pocket. Do not include premiums paid through your payroll deductions, which is pre-tax. You MUST Include Form 1095-A (Market Place Insurance) If you purchased insurance through the Market Place, you must supply all 1095-A's.
 - 2) Long Term Care premiums.
 - 3) Total out-of-pocket expenses including medical co-pays, dental, Rx's, Lasik, eyeglasses, contacts, hearing aids and batteries, medical mileage, medical tolls, travel, and hotel costs for medical purposes.
- Health Savings Account (HSA) contributions made.
- IRA, SEP-IRA, Simple, and/or Roth IRA contributions made, including Back-door Roth contributions.
- Business Income & Expenses: If you are self-employed, you have a home-based business, or if you received a 1099-MISC, 1099-NEC, 1099-K for work performed. Please see my bookkeeping checklist for help on common expenses to include.

- Bank Routing # and Account # for direct deposit only if you have changed bank accounts in 2025-2026.
- Advise if you have Foreign Bank and Financial accounts directly in your name or you have influence over.
- Student Loan Interest paid from Form 1099-E
- College Tuition Expenses: Form 1098-T, which is normally addressed to your child. Total the amounts you paid to the school or get a printout from the school. Include all amounts paid by Student Loans. However, loan payments to your student loan are NOT considered college tuition expenses, nor are payments for room, board, and meals.
- Unreimbursed expenses purchased by eligible educator (maximum of $300 each educator).
- Mortgage Interest Statements (Form 1098) and Real Estate Taxes paid.
- Charitable Donations: Cash and non-cash contributions (clothing, furniture, autos).
- Child Care Credit, the Fed ID/Social Security No. Name and Address and amount paid to the providers.
- Real Estate “Closing Disclosure Statement” for each time you refinanced, purchased or sold your property(ies). You will have two (2) Closing Statements if you sold your old home and purchased a new one.
- Stock Options: If you exercised stock options granted by your employer, I need ALL information supplied by your employer and broker about the transaction.
- Provide any foreign income or any cryptocurrency amounts sold (amount received & cost basis).
- Rental Property Income and Expenses.
- K-1s from Partnerships, S-Corps, and Trusts.
- W-2G - Gambling Winnings. (If you have gambling winnings, also send gambling losses).
